Hi! My name is Hari. I'm a hedgehog. My quills look a little scary, but I am really friendly.

Do you know there are many ways to show love?

One day when I am at the zoo, I see Mommy Bear hugging her cubs. I wonder, "Why doesn't my mom hug me?"

After school, I rush right home to our hedge. I ask Mom, "Why don't we hug? Don't you love me?"

Mom is surprised at my question. She answers,
"Oh yes, my dear, we love you very much!
Our quills make it hard for hedgehogs to hug."

Dad reminds me, "Hedgehogs do sniff kiss to show we care."

Then Mom said, "We give you food. We make a nice warm hedge home for you too."

"We speak nicely to each other.
We do fun day trips together too!"

I think about this. I clean my room to help.

Dad nods, "All these are ways to show love."

Mom asks if I still want a hug. I say, "YES!"

It isn't easy!

Dad asks, "How do hedgehogs hug?
He smiles and answers, "Very carefully!"
We all laugh!

I think about what Mom and Dad said.
I know they love me, but I still wish my quills didn't make it hard to hug.

One day my friends and I are playing when...

Fox starts being mean to us!

I puff up my quills and say, "Hey! Be nice!"

It works. Fox runs away.

Having quills is pretty cool, even if they do make it hard to hug.

We hedgehogs still sniff kiss. After all...

Polar bears slide and throw snowballs together.

Monkeys share bananas & play jokes on each other.

Tigers tickle and play games together.

There are so many ways to show love!

Hedgehogs learns that there are many ways to show love.

We learn, that we can show how we feel to the people we love too.
