I live
on a tree
in a nest.

I can not fly.
I want to.

I am afraid.
I fear that I will fail.

Should I even try to fly?

My friends
show me...

how they fly.

It is very important to flap.

Also, need to learn how to land.

I decide!
Yes, I should
TRY to fly!

I believe I can fly.

I study
how to fly...

with my family...

and my friends.

Next, I practice short glides from branch to branch.

I think about flying.

I am ready to try!

I jump
from the nest.

I flap and flap so fast.

Suddenly!
I CAN FLY!
Hooray!

Oh me!
Oh my!
I can fly!

I fly all across the sky!

The world looks different from up here.

I fly to places that...

I could not go to before I learned to fly.

I feel different too.
Now, that I can fly,
I believe in myself more.

Rules

Rules help me read.
Rules are common ways
to say letters and words.

The Rules

Rule #1 One Sound

Many letters
make only one sound.

B bag

D dog

F face

G go

H hi

J job

K king

L leg

M mop

N no

P pig

R run

S sit

T to

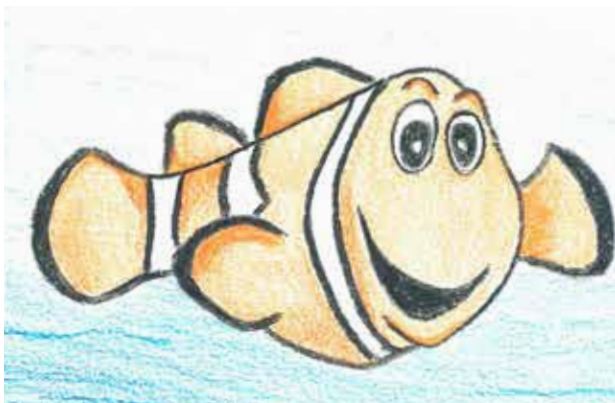

V van

W water

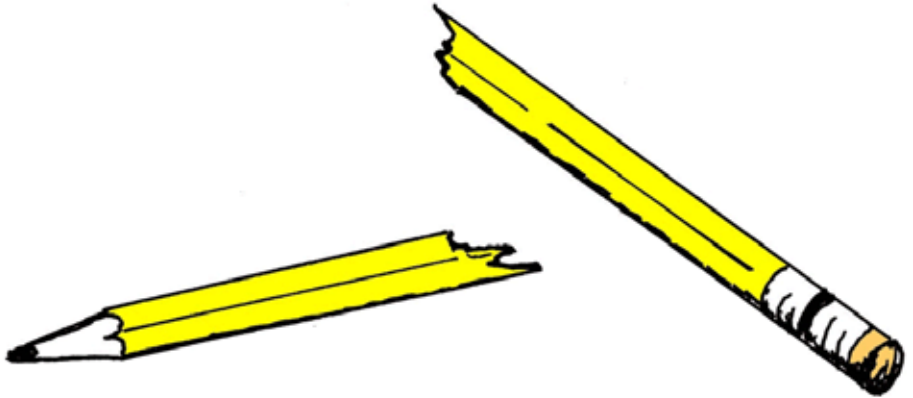

X x-ray

Y yell

Z zero

Rule Breakers

Each Rule has breakers.
That is, English does NOT always follow the rules.

Breaker #1

C makes the K sound.

car

cake

Sometimes 'C' makes an 'S' sound.

C in city, CD and center.

Certainly, this will take some practice.

1) Re-read the Book.

Ask yourself the question, what is the main point of this story?

Robins try & try until they can fly!

1) Try English!

In Class 1, we use the
"Robin Tries" story to try more English. We learn that letters make words.

Back Cover

"Robin Tries" is the story of wanting to fly but being afraid to try. Robin overcomes fear and learns to fly! We learn to try new things too, like English!
