As a cartoon, Billy has four legs.
Real honey bees have six legs.

"Ah, Ah choo!"

"I'll never be a
pollen picker if I can't overcome
my allergies."

"Ah ah choo-y choo choo! I sound like a choo-choo train."

"Maybe I should give up?"

Elder Bee gives Billy
some advice. "Well! You can give up or you can get going and try harder."

"If it is what you really want - you have to work for it."

Elder Bee asks,
"Do you like honey?"

Billy answers, "Yes,
Every bee likes to eat honey!"

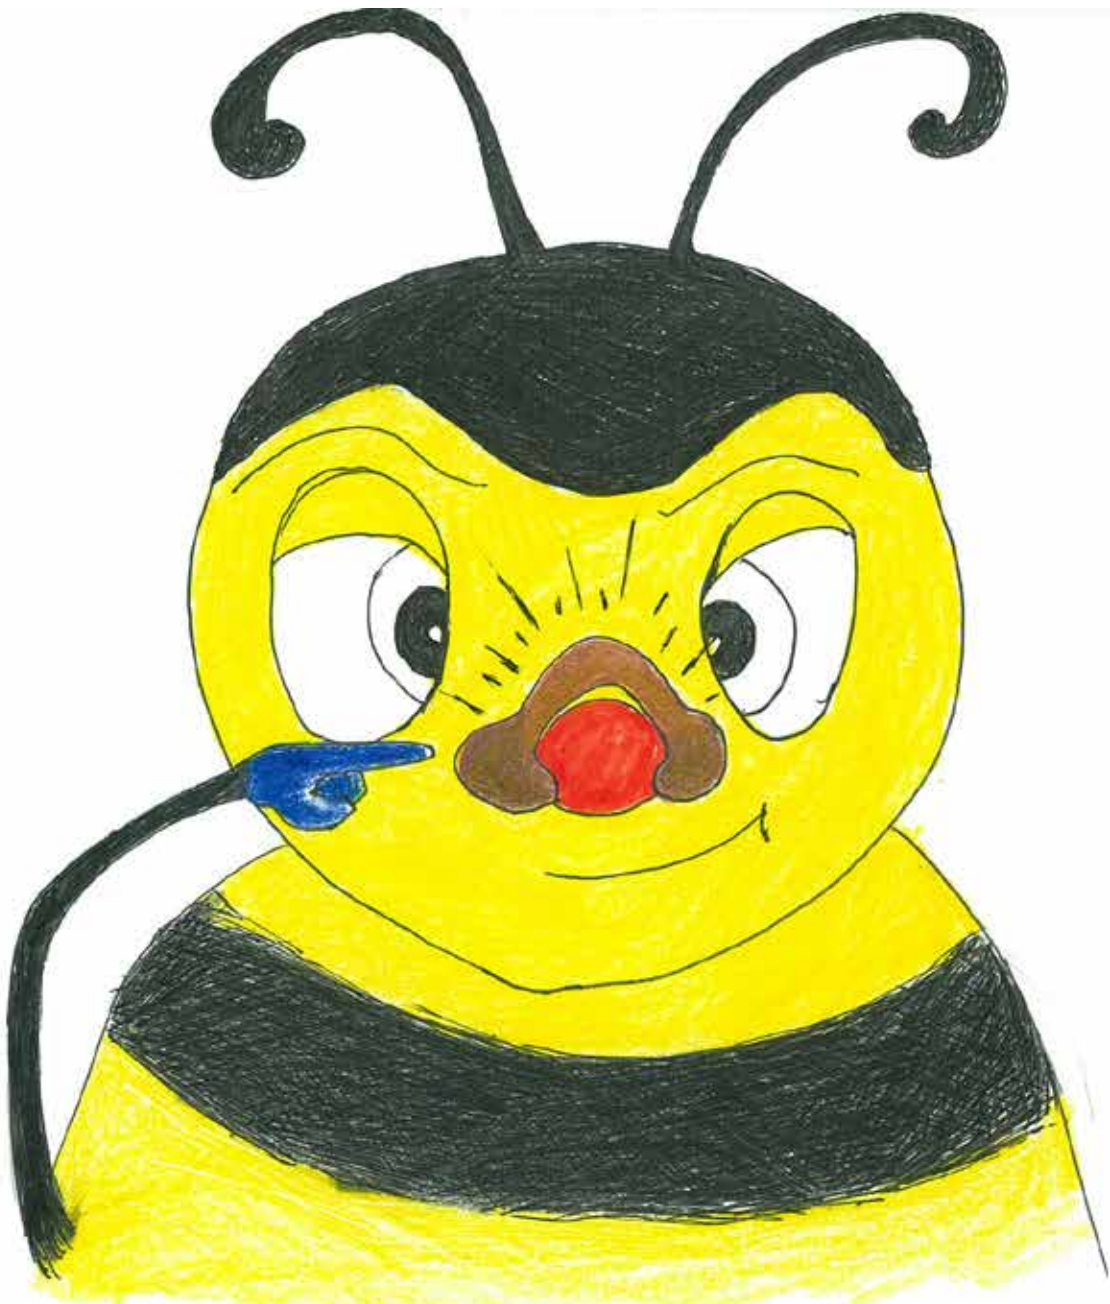

Elder Bee continues, "Well, honey is made from pollen. We pollen pickers have a very important job. The hive would not have enough food if it wasn't for us."

“Oh! How can I stop sneezing so I can become a pollen picker?”

"I will give nose plugs a try."

"Ah choo! The plugs don't work."

Billy sees the Bee Keeper getting honey from the hive.

Billy gets an idea.

He makes a mask. Billy can't wait to try it out!

Billy flies to a flower. He breathes in. He doesn't sneeze! The mask works!

Today is the big race
to see who gets to become pollen pickers.

There are many bees
trying out for the few pollen picker jobs.

The bees hurry from flower to flower to see who can gather the most pollen.

And the winner is...
Billy Bee!

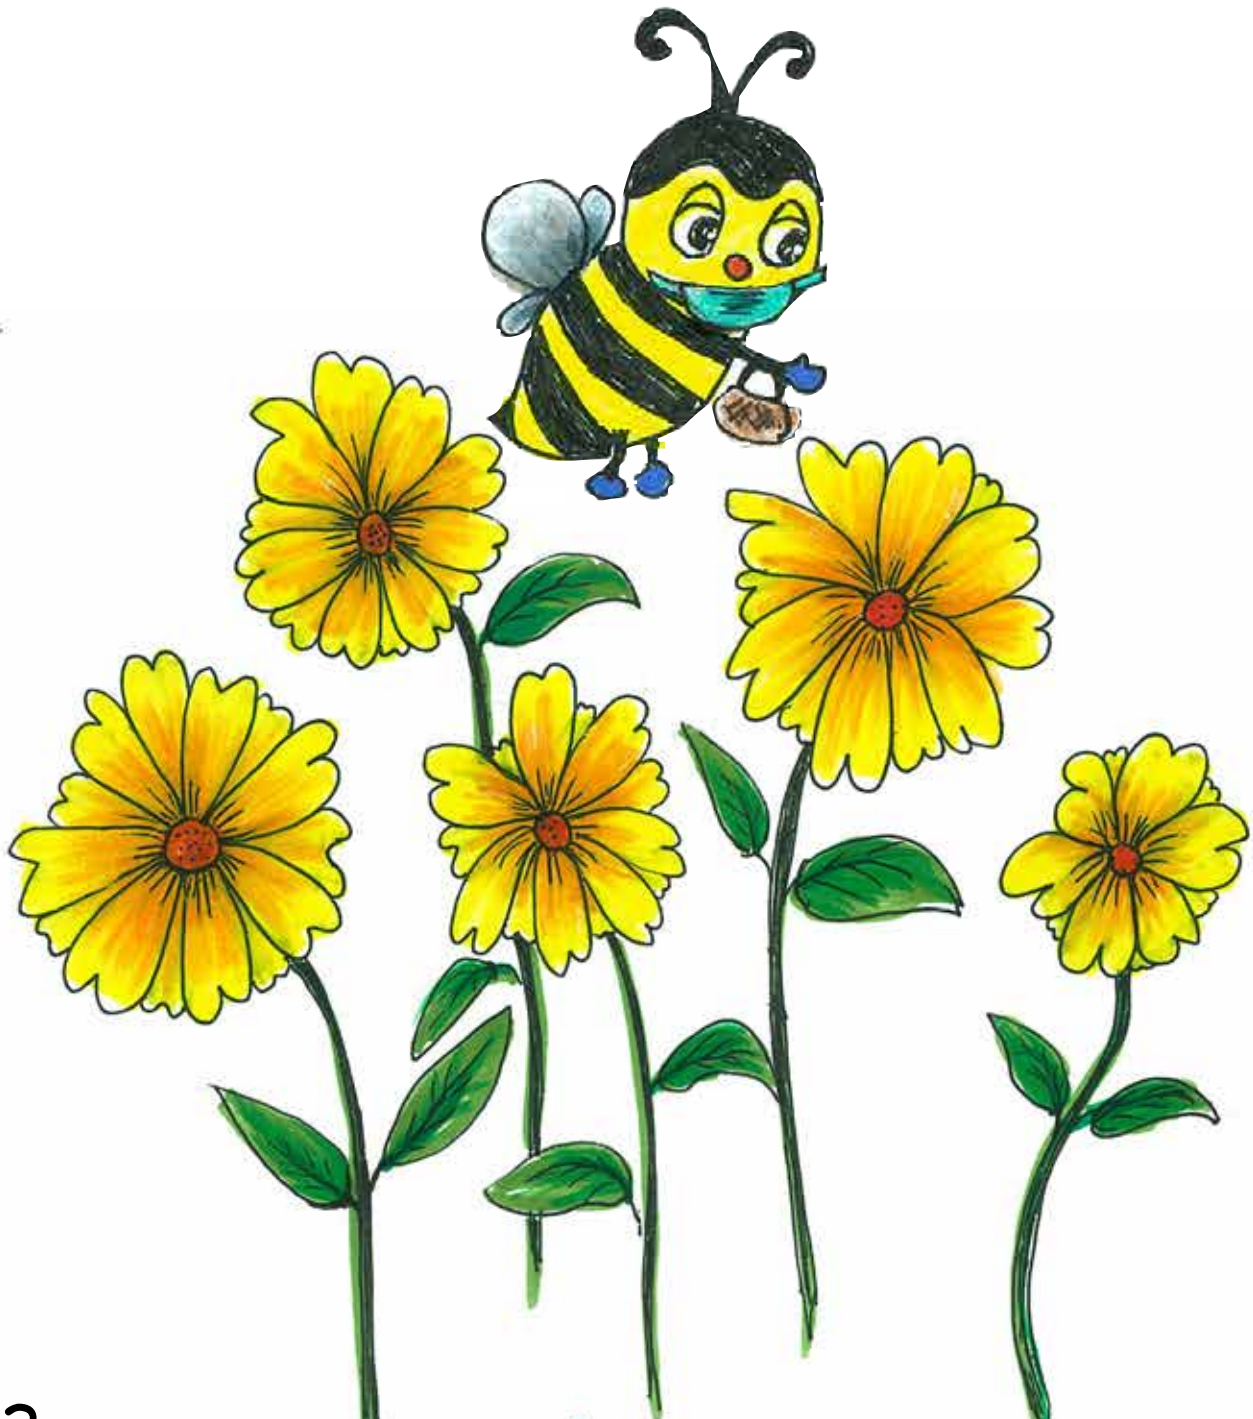

Billy likes picking pollen.

Billy overcomes his allergies to do his the best! He gets lots of honey too!

We can all be like Billy and overcome obstacles
in our own lives.

Billy learns to overcome adversity
and be the best bee that he can be.

We learn, that we can overcome our own problems too.
